

The prefecture of Chalkidiki consists of three peninsulas: Kassandra, Sithonia and Athos.

As a center of attraction of a lot of visitors, Chalkidiki has unique nature with isolated bays, crystal clear

Despite the large number of tourists, the visitor can enjoy tourism of all kinds. Cosmopolitan beaches are

The extensive road network of the prefecture is being improved, and can lead you to the whole county of

Every village has its own history, from the age to the ancient, from the Byzantine period to the modern ti

Kassandra is the western peninsula of Chalkidiki. It is one of the most famous locations of Chalkidiki, with developed tourist facilities, and it has to offer a lot to the visitor, both in the cultural and the tourism sector.

It is a paradise world, with never-ending beaches and pine tree areas that reach the turquoise sea. The beautiful pure scenery seems undisturbed by the modern life, with the rich lush vegetation and the transparent waters creating a magnificent show.

The development of the tourism has promote the creation of well-organised tourist facilities, luxurious hotels and a lot entertainment centers that offer a wonderful environment of holidays that can be enjoyed by travelers from Greece as well as visitors from all over the world, that come to admire the true beauty of Greek nature.